ORIGINAL SCHOOL SONG

Faithful Lancers,
Proudly at the foe
Sing thy praises loud on every score.

Yes, we hail thee,
Ne'er we'll fail thee,
Teamwork will drive our Lancers (L.H.S.)
And in Victory laurels for our fame,
As the Romans, praise in high acclaim
Till all 'round us laud our name
Oh navy blue and blue.

(Chorus)
Layton is the high school of our choice,
Shout, oh shout, Men,
With all your heart and voice,
Grant unto her honor may she ever be
Oh, we'll forever cherish
Layton High School.

In Memoriam

Bernadine Martinez

PERFECTION

Some say that life is just a test
That I should try to do my best

Some think that I have to be admired
And paraded in front of this whole world

So many need their lives brought
While every day is filled with fight

Others love to speak their name
On society pages that share their fame

But my standards are humble and I give the best I can each day

I don't think I really need
A bank account that is filled by greed

Or a giant mansion with a pool
And in the drive a Rolls-Royce

Or a life of pretense and show
And get a glimpse of what really is

And later in my life, each day
To find what this world is all about

To help someone without a word
To give what you will never need

And without a thought of looking great
To you I'll hold a steady hand . . . and pull.

As years go by, I'll be glad
These truths will be the words I need

Handwritten text, likely bleed-through from the reverse side of the page. The text is written in cursive and is mostly illegible due to blurring. It appears to be a list or a series of notes, possibly related to a medical or scientific study, mentioning various terms and numbers.

Dear Charles
I am not signing your name for this year.
I know if you don't want me to, well I guess I'll have to come and get you to come. So many night times I miss you.
Always,
Andy

Handwritten notes in the top right corner, possibly a list or index, with some words like "Table" and "Page" visible.
